

How will they hear unless somebody tells them?

How many times have you heard someone explain the Good News of Jesus Christ? In many rural communities across Bolivia there is no church and no witness of the Gospel. Hundreds of families still live and die without ever hearing the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Luke & Priscilla Lundstedt, SIM missionaries in Bolivia

We first went out in 1974 to work amongst the Fulani people of West Africa. When we first arrived, these pastoralist people were not interested in the Gospel. As we began to learn their language, and live among them, we were amazed at how God began to open their hearts to the Gospel and to us – especially as we shared in their mother tongue. When we first went out, there were very few Fulani believers, but now we thank God that there are many believers scattered across the desert.

A WILL TO MAKE
Christ Known

A bequest can change lives
for future generations and leave an eternal legacy!

“...TELL

to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.”

Psalm 78:4

In a world where people are living and dying without the Gospel, you can change lives for future generations and leave an eternal legacy!

A Will is more than a legal document. It is a chance to give to those you love and to make sure that your estate is distributed according to your wishes. It is also an opportunity to remember Christian ministries that have been important to you during your lifetime. A Will may be the only time that you can make a significant gift to an organisation or charity that you support.

More than half of all Australians don't have a Will despite the process being quite straightforward. When making a bequest, it is possible to nominate how you would like your gift to be used. For instance, you could bequeath a specific percentage of your estate, a fixed amount, or specific items such as shares or investments.

Once you have decided what type of bequest you would like to make, it is important that the correct wording is included in your Will. SIM Australia's bequest officer is able to help you with this process.
